

I feel it would be a travesty to mess with Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. My evenings at home with my husband and child are telemarketer free ever since I submitted our number to be on the "Do Not Call" list. I can't begin to tell you how many calls we used to receive all hours of the evening and on SUNDAY'S! I don't miss them and I do wish the FCC would let the Indiana Law stand.

Sincerely,

Sarah Heck
